GREENBACKERS AND BANKS.
Stewart, Charley Parker's showman and spokesman, is going through the country telling his Greenback stories. He don't keep himself by the records, neither does he pretend to enlighten his hearers by stating facts. He couldn't preach up the National doctrine if he held himself closely to the truth. For instance, he has a great deal to say against National banks and their currency. He wants them abolished, their notes withdrawn, and the Government authorized to issue greenbacks in their place; and he gives no sound reasons or common sense reason, why the change should be made. He calls them a monopoly and a burden on the people, but he won't show wherein they are a special privilege or a tax upon the country. He won't tell his hearers that National banking is true; that whoever has the desire, and the money to put up as security, and who will comply with the law, can start a National bank. He won't come out with the truth and say that the people are not taxed to support them. He won't tell his Greenback friends that National bank notes are absolutely safe, and that they help the Government to maintain the 346 millions of greenbacks at par with gold. He won't say these things because he couldn't gain supporters for the Greenback movement and stick to the facts. It is only by wild and inflammatory speeches and writings that converts are made to the this so-called Greenback theory.
Inasmuch as the Greenbackers are making the National banks one of the principal issues in this campaign, let us see what the banks really cost the people, and what taxes the banks pay to the people. In the first place, National banking is perfectly free, it is opened to all who will comply with the law and have means enough to protect their notes which go into circulation, so there can't be any monopoly about that. Another complaint the Greenbackers make is that the people are taxed to support them. A more ridiculous statement could not be made. It is true, as everybody knows, that the banks receive interest on the bonds they have deposited in the treasury for securing their circulating notes. But is that a tax upon the people? The government would be compelled to pay the interest on the bonds no matter in whose hands the bonds might be. The Government would not save a cent of interest, were all the banks abolished to-morrow. The bonds would still draw interest and we would have to pay it whether the banks placed them in the treasury to secure the people against loss on their notes, or whether they were owned by private individuals. But this is not all. By abolishing the present banking system, the people would lose over 16 millions of dollars a year in taxes. This may sound strange in the ear of a Greenbacker, but it is the truth nevertheless.
Since the banks were organized, they have paid a little over 193 millions of dollars in taxes! About one-half of this went into the United States treasury, and the other half into the State treasuries. So to wipe out the banks, would be to lose a large sum in the form of taxes paid by the banks. Beside this, their suspension would bring into circulation, the notes of State banks which would be a detriment to business and an imposition upon the people. It would pay Greenbackers to take a common sense view of the present banking system of the United States, a system which has never been excelled.

The Madison Democrat in its Thursday's issue says: "During the campaign last fall the Janesville Times did not omit in any issue to 'read the Democrat out of the party' for refusing to endorse the Fond du Lac platform. That paper, after beating about the bush with no fixed principles for several weeks, has concluded not to support Parker, but, on the contrary, to heap fulsome flattery upon Williams. Consistency is a rare virtue of which the Times will finally die in ignorance. If the Times can't support old flatulation Parker why didn't it have the manliness and courage to advise placing in nomination a straight Democrat? We scanned the columns of that paper in vain for any such suggestion previous to the time of the Convention. Our esteemed Janesville contemporary needs a vast deal more of back bone." We agree with the Democrat that the Times needs more back bone on the financial question, but in justice to our friends of the Times we must say that the Democrat is mistaken as to the Times refusing to support Parker, for it does support him as far as possible under the circumstances.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

VOLUME 22 JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1878. NUMBER 167

We published a few weeks ago with a great deal of pleasure, and no doubt many Republicans read with a great degree of interest, the interview which a Chicago Times' correspondent had with Matt Carpenter in Washington. The interview gave Mr. Carpenter's old friends in Rock county to understand that he was still a Republican, that the next Republican candidate for President would be his candidate, and that Republican principles were his principles. But we fear a change is likely to come over the spirit of Mr. Carpenter's dreams. The call which asks him to become a candidate for the United States Senate, is signed principally by Democrats and Greenbackers, and the general impression is that between these two parties there will be a coalition to elect him. We are in hopes that he will remain a Republican, and use his great power as an orator in aiding to elect a Republican Legislature.

The powder mill at Platteville, Grant county, in this State, was blown up on Wednesday afternoon, and the entire property destroyed, but fortunately no lives were lost. The explosion was a terrific one, the deep rumbling noise being heard nearly fifty miles distant. At Dodgeville, thirty miles northwest from Platteville, the explosion made the buildings tremble. This is the third time the Platteville powder mills have blown up within the past twenty-five years. The first one occurred in the fall of 1855, the shock being felt and the noise distinctly heard, twenty miles. At that time several lives were lost.

The Democrats have more or less trouble with their candidates this fall. Something is wrong. The Milwaukee News, Democratic, won't heartily support Duester. The Manitowish Pilot, Democratic, considers Bragg's nomination an outrage. The Watertown Democrat urges the Democrats of the First District to support Williams instead of the Democratic nominee. The Chippewa Falls Times, Democratic, won't support Barrows for Congress because he is too soft on the financial question. The Democrats are finding the way to Congress a hard road to travel.

The National Democratic Committee wants to know the whereabouts of one Thurman, of Ohio. The Committee has hit a snag and it wants him to explain. In 1870 Senator Thurman, according to the Record, wanted to withdraw all the Greenbacks from circulation and fill their places with National bank notes. Now he wants to withdraw all the National bank notes and put in their stead, greenbacks. What sort of a financier is Thurman, and how will he stand next year? The conundrum is too heavy.

The Gazette labors to show that the Democrats have changed front on the currency question; doesn't our neighbor know by the same mode of reasoning it can be shown that his own party has changed front?—City Times.

The Republican party has never changed front on the question of sound currency and public faith. Individuals, like Parker, may have done so, but the party in Congress and out of it, has not and will not. The Republicans made the greenbacks and they propose to stand by them, and make them honest and convertible in spite of the opposition.

Andrew Jackson once said: "There never was nor ever could be use for any other kind (than redeemable currency) except for SPECULATORS and GAMBLERS in stock; and this to the utter ruin of the labor and morals of the country. A specie currency gives life and action to the producing classes on which the prosperity of all is founded."

A new Republican Convention of the Sixth District, has been called to meet at Oshkosh, on the 1st of October to nominate a candidate for Congress in place of George Grimmer, who is ineligible. The Convention should nominate either Browne or Sawyer. Either one would beat Bouck.

Dr. Ladd, of Maine, who has been recently elected to Congress by the Democrats, said during the campaign that "a tramp who steals a loaf of bread is a gentleman along side of a man who owns United States bonds, and is not so much of a thief." That is Maine Democracy.

The actual debt of the United States in 1865, which bore interest, was $2,811,530,000, and in 1878 it is $1,794,735,000. Beside that, in 1865, there was cash in the treasury, 88 millions, but now with a largely reduced debt there is 256 millions of cash in the treasury.

The public debt of the United States per capita in 1865, was $78.25, and the interest annually per capita, was $4.29, under an economical and judicious administration of the Republican party, the debt has been reduced to $41.67 per capita, and the interest, to $1.97.

This is a time when Republicans should keep level-headed, remain firm in the right, support an unbending spinal column, and exercise ordinary common sense. There is victory in this line of policy.

Senator Howe will take the stump this fall and is already advertised to speak at Oconto and Marinette next Tuesday and Wednesday.

THE PLACUE.
Hopeful, But Terrible—A Decrease in the Death Rate—The Latest Reports.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The outlook to-night is more hopeful. The official report of the Board of Health gives a total of sixty-two deaths during the past twenty-four hours, of which twenty-two were colored.

VICKSBURG, Sept. 19.—The day has been very warm, and cloudy at times, but to-night is clear, thermometer 91. The reduction in the new cases the past few days has been very great. In several cases the physicians think of leaving within a short time. The new cases to-day show an increase over yesterday. Among the new cases we regret to announce Wm. Rockwood, President of the Howard Association. William A. Fairchild is in a critical condition, and no hopes are entertained of his living through the night. He has had the black vomit for twenty-four hours. Dr. Stewart Roch, who came from Yazoo City, is among the new cases. Fifteen deaths are reported to-day, nine whites and six colored. The postoffice here is reduced to one employee, all the others are on leave or have died with the fever.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 19.—E. C. Jacobs, with A. Thompson & Co., died this morning.

Deaths, 55; cases reported, 105; prior to the 16th instant, 134.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 19, 9 p.m.—Weather cool and cloudy; threatening rain. Deaths reported from noon to 6 p.m., 29; cases reported, 85, of which 41 were prior to the 16th instant. Among the new cases is George Root, with Brown & Jones, and James Maloney, telegraph operator.

BIG ROBBERY.
A Baltimore Man Robbed of $65,000 in Broad Daylight—A Bank Robbery in Toledo.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 19.—Colonel William M. Boone, President of the Mount Vernon Cotton Mills and Director of the National Bank of Baltimore, was robbed yesterday of $27,850 in bonds and $37,000 in cash. The robbery occurred in broad daylight, and at a busy time of the day, but so far as known there is no clue to the perpetrators. It is understood that the bonds and money were kept in an ordinary bank box, but all the gentlemen connected with the affair were extremely reticent yesterday, and kept the details secret.

TOLEDO, Sept. 19.—While the Presidential party was passing this morning sneak thieves slipped behind the counter of the Commercial National Bank in this city and abstracted $8,233 in currency from the cash drawer. The boldness of the operation was wonderful. The room is small, and all the employees were in it, though they were looking out of the window at the procession. The thief had to pass close to them, within ten feet of where the President was sitting at his desk, and behind an intricate system of counters. The theft was not discovered for half an hour.

At or near the same time sneak-thieves obtained $2,500 from the sale of the post-office.

WILLIAM TO ELIHU.
The Emperor of Germany and the Crown Prince Tender Thanks to Ex-Minister Washburne.

IMPERIAL GERMAN LEGATION, WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—To the Hon. E. B. Washburne, Chicago.—DEAR SIR: You have been kind enough to send through the United States Legation at Berlin to His Majesty the Emperor and his Imperial Highness the Crown Prince the interesting collection of the official documents concerning the German-Franco war of 1870 and 1871. On the request of His Majesty and the Crown Prince, I have the honor to transmit to you their earnest thanks for this attention. At the same time Prince Bismarck, Mr. Von Buelow, and Baron Holstein send you their best thanks for your valuable document. Accept, dear sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

SCHLOZER.

IMPROVEMENTS.
Improvements and Building Going on in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Notwithstanding the much talked of "financial depression," there was never so much building going on in Washington as during the present summer. People who own real estate, and have money, are taking advantage of the cheap labor and materials to improve their property. The Inspector of Buildings reports that during July and August he issued building permits amounting to over a million dollars. The recent legislation, by Congress reorganizing the government of the District of Columbia, fixing a maximum of taxation, and settling beyond dispute the proportion the United States should pay toward the support of the district, has had the effect to establish values here and encourage improvements.

HALE'S OPINION.
Opinion of Eugene Hale Regarding the Maine Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.—Eugene Hale, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, returned to-day. In an interview this evening Mr. Hale gave expression to the following opinions, particularly with respect to the Greenback speech of Gorman, Secretary of the Committee, and Secretary Sherman's alleged interview: Hale held nothing in the Maine campaign to induce the Republican party to take backward steps. On the contrary, he thought the party would brace up, and that throughout New England, and particularly in Maine and Massachusetts, sound-money Democrats would unite with the Republicans. The Greenbackers in Maine have entirely absorbed the Democracy.

Mc PHERSON
To Give up the Bureau of Engraving—His Successor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The intention of the Hon. E. McPherson to resign the position of Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and printing, has been known to the President and Secretary Sherman for several weeks. The successor of Mr. McPherson will be a man of good public record, possibly an ex-member of Congress, and will bring character and integrity to the office. The bureau has, under the management of McPherson, been put in perfect working condition, and the new Chief will not be called upon to make important changes in rules and regulations.

DANE COUNTY.
Republican County Nominations for Dane County.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 19.—The Dane County Republican Convention, to-day, nominated the following candidates: Sheriff, Phineas Baldwin, of Oregon; Clerk, R. Green, of Albion; Treasurer, Charles Kayser, of Madison; Clerk of the Court, H. Z. Moulter, of Mazomanie; Register of Deeds, Charles S. Thorndike, of Vienna; District Attorney, James Reynolds, of Madison; Surveyor, S. W. Graves, of Rutland; Coroner, George Baxter, of Windsor.

THE VATICAN.
Decision of the College of Cardinals that the Pope Should not Leave the Vatican.

ROME, Sept. 19.—The Special Congregation of Cardinals has just decided that the Pope should not leave the Vatican under special overruling circumstances. Cardinal Neri is asking to ascertain whether the German Catholics are inclined to follow party leaders, or orders from the Vatican. The Vatican has ordered the Catholic bishops in Mexico to abstain from participating in political contests.

THE STORM.
A Heavy Rain in Milwaukee—The First in Three Months.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19.—A heavy storm of wind and rain from the southwest has prevailed here since this afternoon, the first heavy rainfall in three months. The storm this evening was accompanied with thunder and lightning. Several buildings in the city were struck and damaged but not seriously. A number of trees were also struck and shattered in various parts of the city.

GENERAL BUTLER.
Butler at Toledo—He Declines to Talk to His Friends.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 19.—General B. F. Butler arrived in this city this afternoon to meet the Board of Managers of the Soldiers Home at Dayton. He was serenaded at the hotel to-night by the Nationals, but declined making a speech.

SIXTH DISTRICT.
Oshkosh, Wis., Sept. 19.—The Republican Convention of the Sixth Congressional District has been called to meet here Oct. 1st, to nominate a candidate in place of George Grimmer, declined. The Greenback District Committee is now in session here to put on a candidate in place of Griffith. One portion want to nominate Dr. Steele, of Appleton, while others are encouraging Indorsement of Bouck, Democratic candidate.

HELD FOR TRIAL.
RACINE, Sept. 19.—This afternoon Vinne Bronson, charged with infanticide, was brought before Judge Hand, for examination, and put under $2,500 bonds to appear at the fall term of the circuit court. The girl, Amelia Bronson, mother of the child, was also brought up and had her examination, and was put under $500 bonds to appear as a witness.

CONVICTED.
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19.—Thomas R. Comley, of Philadelphia, once advance agent of the Haverly Minstrels, and manager of the Fiske Gladiators, was to-day convicted of robbing Mr. William Henderson, of the town of Greenfield, this county, of $1,000 in September, 1873.

MORTIMER'S DEATH.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 19.—The Coroner's inquest shows that J. K. Mortimer's death resulted from chronic alcoholism. Mortimer was at one time a prominent actor, but lately had become very dissipated. It was at first thought he had committed suicide.

PROF. WADDELL.
Death in the Oil Can.

From the Burlington Hawkeye.

A man out on South Hill had reason to believe that his superintending of cuisine was in the habit of using kerosene to start the morning fires. He placed his suspicions in the form of a charge, and was indignantly denied, and proof demanded. He wasn't ready with his testimony, and the case was dismissed for lack of evidence. But his suspicions increased, and he ordered a secret investigation, and appointed himself chairman of the committee, with power to send for persons and papers. He had his plans with care, and the next morning he followed his maid-servant down stairs at a careful and respectful distance, and hid himself near the kitchen door, where he could not see nor be seen, while he could hear very distinctly whatever was said or done. The rustle of paper and the rattle of dry light wood was succeeded by hasty steps and the closet in the cellar was then heard. He heard the gurgling of a liquid, as though it was bubbling out of a small tin spoon. He heard the can set down and then the scrape of a match.

"H'm," he heard the maid-servant remark. Then another match snapped and a barely audible fizzle succeeded. Grmly smiled the silent man by the outer door. "H'm," remarked the maid-servant, a little petulantly. Another match snapped and blazed up. Another sound as of sizzling. The smile on the face of the man deepened into a grin.

"Well, I never did!" came from the kitchen, and there was heard the sound of more pouring on the light wood. Another match and more silence.

"Well, did you ever?" queried the queen of the range, evidently anxious to obtain testimony corroborative of her own experience, as set forth in her previous statement that she never did. The man sitting outside the door throttled himself with both hands and softly pounded the ground with his heels. Something evidently excited him, and when the next match snapped he caught himself by the legs and bit fiercely into the corner of the door frame in a frenzied effort to smother a hollow groan.

"The old Scratch is in the oil, I do believe," said a troubled voice in the kitchen, and more pouring ensued. Another match, another, another. And the man crawled off behind the cistern box and hugged his knees with many an expressive and silent demonstration of interest, when he heard the angry voice inside the kitchen say:

"Plague on such oil! I'd like to pour it all down Will Darling's back!"

Another match, and then a confused sound of rattling and scraping, and a fearful woman came to the door and hurled an armful of soaked paper and light wood out into the yard and kicked an oil can after it. The smiling man crept back up stairs unseen. Breakfast was late that morning, and when the queen of the kitchen was asked the cause whereof, she said somebody had left the shed door open and all the light wood was damp. And no man that ever filled an oil can with non-explosive cistern water ever looked half so innocent as the man who sat at the head of that table choking over a graham muffin.

Prompt Reform of Bodily Evils.
The prompt reform of those bodily evils, enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous system which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysis, and eminently wholesome and agreeable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now supplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. But at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

BRIEFLETS.

—Moist.
—Keep out of the wet.
—Temple of Honor meeting to night.
—Stray umbrellas are quickly picked up.

—A very quiet wedding took place before Justice Balch yesterday afternoon.
—A bright blaze was seen last night in the south, appearing to be a burning stack.
—Another discussion of the water-works tomorrow evening at the Council Chamber.

—Miss Lillian Barlow, from Chicago, is spending a few days with Miss Mary Baines.

—The fireside of Rev. and Mrs. Sawin has been happily by the advent of a little daughter.

—Mr. N. Densmore, formerly of Bradford, this county, now a resident of Rockwell, Iowa, is in the city to-day.

—The Janesville Guards met and drilled last evening, but postponed their election of non-commissioned officers to Monday night next.

—The funeral services of Mrs. Horace Herklimer took place this afternoon at her late residence on Academy street, near school, in the fourth ward.

—The first ward folks ought to be satisfied. They have eight preachers living among them, and yet they don't have any more bolts on their front doors than in other wards.

—No arrests for drunkenness or disorderliness for a week past, not because the officers are neglecting their duty, but because no one has been getting in such a condition as to need arrest.

—The campaign will be opened in this city by a discussion of the financial question at the rooms of the Y. M. A., on Saturday evening, at a quarter to eight o'clock. A lively time is expected.

—Mr. Lewis Hunt and family left to-day for their future home in Auburn, N. Y. Their removal is a loss to this community, and many will regret it, yet the best wishes of hosts of friends will follow them.

—A new York man wrote to Postmaster Patterson inquiring about the whereabouts of a man named James Carroll, who, the writer says is his uncle, and that he came to Rock county some years ago, but he has not heard from him since 1849.

—It must be damp, mean, and chilly camping out, and yet a party rolled into the city to-day with a lumber wagon loaded with truck, enroute for some favorable place to camp. A full beer keg graced the head of the load, and an empty one the rear, while high over all hung a banner with the word "Veterans" and the cross-bones on it. Several other patriotic emblems were displayed showing the jovial condition of those who formed the party.

—Last evening there was quite a gathering at the East side engine house to witness the testing of hose with the pump received from Chicago. There was considerable discussion owing from a difference of opinion as to the practicability of the test, and every one had some expression to give vent to. The pump itself did not work very satisfactorily, but to-day an attempt was made to get it into better working order, and if this cannot be done, the hose will be tested by the engines. Thus far only one length of new hose has burst under the test, and that was a lead which had become worn in places by friction on the road.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 62 degrees above and at 2 o'clock 57 degrees above. Cloudy and showery, with cold north wind. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 51 and 74 degrees above.

The indications to-day are, for the Tennessee and Ohio valleys, and lake region, warmer, southwest winds, falling barometer, partly cloudy weather, and occasional rains, followed by cooler north-west winds and rising barometer.

CLOSE CALL.

The lightning kills a horse, but the occupants of the buggy are unharmed.

Mr. R. K. Pritchard, who lives on Washington street, in the first ward, was Wednesday afternoon driving along in the town of Porter, his wife being seated beside him in the buggy, when the thunderstorm came up. Strangely enough the lightning struck the horse killing it instantly but not injuring either of the occupants of the buggy, but did not even feel it. The horse was valued at $125. A team following was knocked down on the road but were not killed, and folks in the wagon were not hurt. There was no rain at the time.

NOTES FROM THE FIELD.

The Providence boys retaliated on the Buffalos yesterday, defeating them by 4 to 2.

The Chicagoes yesterday played a Detroit amateur club called the Cass, and defeated them by 14 to 7.

The Manchesteres yesterday defeated the Uticas 10 to 3.

At Kansas City yesterday Rarus trotted three heats against time, making them in 2:22½, 2:17, and 2:18. These are the fastest two consecutive heats and the fastest second and third heats Rarus ever trotted on a half-mile track.

A NIGHT-BLOOMING CERES.

Last evening in spite of rain and mud, a number of neighbors and friends dropped into the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bennett, to witness the unfolding of a night-blooming cereus. There was no formality about the affair, but any and all who chose were at liberty to step in and see the beautiful flower. It commenced unfolding about 6 o'clock, a little earlier than usual, owing it is thought to the fact of its having been a dark gloomy day. The air was filled with the most delicate perfume, which was noticeable even out doors. The plant was different from others in this city, the stalk being round and almost entirely free from indications of the cactus growth. It is about five or six years old and this was its first flower. It has had several buds but they blighted, but the beauty and fragrance of the blossom last night was sufficient to repay for all the care and patient watching.

BOLD BURGLARS.

They Use Bullets Freely, but Secure Little Plunder.

Several Residences Visited Last Night.

About 3 o'clock this morning Mr. N. E. Hawley, who lives on Ruger avenue, east of Elm street, was aroused from sleep, and saw two burglars prowling about the room. He at once shouted out and asked them what they were doing there, and in almost the same breath yelling at them to get out. They didn't trouble themselves to make any reply, but commenced firing revolvers. At the first shot Mr. Hawley jumped to his feet and started toward them, and they retreated toward an open window. Before reaching it they fired two other shots, and then jumped out of the window. Mr. Hawley ran to the window and looked out, but was warned to draw in his head by a bullet whizzing by it. The burglars fired still another shot as they retreated, and cursed him loudly, as they took to their heels. When peace had been restored the premises were examined, but the only things found missing were a coat and vest, valued at $18. It seems that the fellows had not got at their work fairly when Mr. Hawley awoke, and had not time to get together what plunder they desired.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.

Shortly before the entrance was effected at Mr. Hawley's house, an attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Mr. David Myers, also located on Ruger avenue, east of Glenn street. Mrs. Myers was awakened by some one entering the shutters and window, and going to an upper window looked out, and saw two men standing there. They asked if Dr. Johnson did not live there, and on receiving a negative reply, said that there was a lady over to an adjoining house who was sick, and they wanted a doctor for her. They then took their leave. An examination of the premises this morning showed conclusively that an attempt had been made to force an entrance, and it was evidently thwarted by the awakening of the family.

A THIRD ATTEMPT.

The burglars seem to have kept themselves busy last night, but their labor was mostly in vain. It was discovered this morning that an attempt was made last night to effect an entrance into the residence of Mr. H. A. Stone, corner of East Milwaukee and Jackson streets. The slats of one of the blinds had been sawed off, the blinds opened, and then the window fastening thrown back by forcing something through between the upper and lower sash. The window had been partially raised, but the wire screen on the inside had not been disturbed, so that it was evident the burglars had for some reason forsaken the task after getting thus far along in their work. Mr. Stone was obliged to get up several times during the night to wait upon his wife who is sick, and it is supposed that at one of these times, the burglars must have heard him stirring, and deemed it best to depart without any further attempt.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
The Democrats and Greenbackers Shake Hands.

And Nominate a Full County Ticket.

Full Reports of the Doings of the Convention to-day.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Democratic County Convention met at the Court House in this city, and was called to order by Mr. Horace McElroy.

On motion H. S. Wooster, of Clinton, was chosen Chairman of the Convention and Mr. Horace McElroy, of this city Secretary.

On motion of Mr. A. Hyatt Smith, it was decided that the Chairman should choose a Committee consisting of three from each assembly district, to place before the Convention names for nomination.

As such committee the following were named:

First District—Joseph Russell, A. Broughton, George Helmbolt.
Second District—William Smith, John Healey, A. D. Maxfield.

Third District—H. B. Johnson, E. Thomsen, Sidney Wright.

The Committee on Nominations retired to an ante-room, and after a half hour's deliberation reported the following names which they recommended for nomination:

Senator—William A. Lawrence, of Janesville.

Sheriff—H. S. Wooster, of Clinton.

Register of Deeds—D. L. Mills, of Union.

Treasurer—John Harvey, of Johnson.

County Clerk—Simeon Schoonover, of Fulton.

Clerk of Court—Edgar Green, of Pelee.

District Attorney—George G. Sutherland, of Janesville.

Surveyor—Michael Lynch, of Janesville.

Coroner—William H. Bump, of Magnolia.

The report was accepted and the Committee discharged, and the report was adopted.

Mr. George G. Sutherland declined the nomination, and his declination was accepted.

Mr. William A. Lawrence declined the nomination of State Senator, on account of his health and business pursuits, which prevented his making a canvass.

Dr. Whiting objected to Mr. Lawrence declining, as it was not necessary for Mr. Lawrence to engage in the campaign, as all knew him and knew him well.

On motion of A. Hyatt Smith the report of the Committee was adopted with the exception of District Attorney which was left vacant for later consideration.

To fill that position several names were mentioned, among them being O. H. Orton, of Beloit, Prof. Broder, of Beloit, and A. Hyatt Smith, of Janesville. The last named declined peremptorily.

On motion Prof. Paul Broder, of Beloit, was nominated unanimously for the office of District Attorney.

On motion the following County Committee were named, consisting of one from each assembly district: W. H. Smith, Second district; E. H. Carpenter, Third district; George Helmbolt, First district.

Mr. William A. Lawrence after consulting with others, formally accepted the nomination as State Senator, and the Convention adjourned.

CITY NOTICES.

Ladies All.

use Sordozont who wish to make themselves pleasant and pretty. Better than enamel on the face, or tawdry dresses, it sets off the human face with pleasant smiles and dental beauties, and gives fragrance to the conversation. No lady should neglect to have a bottle on her toilet table.

Spalding's Glue split on a chair, will prevent a man who sits down on it, from getting up easily.

"Only Me."

From the New Orleans Picayune.

A boy came up in the Picayune office to insert a death notice last night. He said to the gentleman having charge of the advertising department: "Another one gone; that makes eight." What do you mean?" asked the gentleman. They boy answered: "I mean that is the eighth one of my family that has died—five brothers and three sisters. I wonder who will come next?" "How many are left?" "Only me," he replied, as he went out.

The Common Hope of All Honest Men.

From the Troy (N. Y.) Times.

Conscientious Democrats, entertaining the old-fashioned principles of their party, see their way to the performance of patriotic duty more clearly than they did before. The men who left their party in 1861-64, because of its disloyalty, will not hesitate to leave it again when they see and appreciate fully the tendencies of its course toward repudiation and financial chaos. The Republican party is to-day the hope and salvation of the country of its honor; and, as patriotic men rallied to its standard in past days of peril, so will they gather around it again and preserve the Nation from demagogism, folly and madness, as they preserved it before from treason and crime. There is nothing in the result in Maine to dishonor honest Democrats or Republicans; but everything to stimulate them to do their duty in the crisis that is before us.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies and Gentles will always find the nicest and cheapest Box and Staple Stationery in the city and Sutherland's Bookstore, No 29 Main street.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me before April 1st, 1877, will oblige by calling and settling the same within 30 days. All claims not settled within that time will positively be left with an officer for collection. All persons not able to pay their account will call and get a receipt for the same. All able to pay a part call for I am determined to settle my old book, and this is the last time I will spend money calling upon you for settlement. Therefore, if you wish to save cost give this your immediate attention. sept1dw S. S. JUD.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movement of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. dec3dw 15-cent bottle

If Baldness or a Deficiency of Hair.

Exists, or if the hair is gray, dry or harsh, the natural youthful color can be restored by using "London Hair Color Restorer," the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people for increasing its growth, restoring its natural color, and at the same time a lovely hair dressing and beautifier. It is totally different from all others; not sticky or gummy, and free from all impure ingredients that render many other articles obnoxious; in fact it is exquisitely perfumed and so cleanly and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and toilet luxury.

J. A. TYNES, A PROMINENT CITIZEN.

Wilson, N. C., writes: Some ten years ago my wife's hair commenced falling, and got very thin and turned gray; but after using "London Hair Color Restorer" the scalp became healthy, the hair stopped falling, the color was restored, and is now growing beautifully.

Ask your druggist for London Hair Color Restorer. Price, 75 cents a bottle. Six bottles, $4. Main Depot for the U. S., 330 North Sixth St., Philadelphia.

Beyond the Reach of Human Skill.

Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balsam is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use, the falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere. Buy a bottle from your druggist, A. J. Roberts, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. jydawoct1dw

"The First Dose Gives Relief."

Trials of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, 25 Cents.
